

Description

SOFT N FRESH is a commercial grade fabric softener engineered to deliver deep, luxurious softening for all fabrics in front and top loading washing machines, as well as hand washing applications. This versatile formula penetrates fibers to reduce static cling, leaving garments fluffy, non static and infused with a pleasant fragrance that lingers through wear. By conditioning fabrics at a molecular level, Soft N Fresh enhances smoothness, making ironing effortless and extending the life of clothing by minimizing wear from friction. Suitable for high volume commercial laundries, hotels and households, the concentrated composition ensures economical use while maintaining consistent performance across all machine types. Soft N Fresh combines professional efficacy with user friendly benefits, ensuring clothes emerge soft, fresh and ready to wear, supporting efficient laundry operations and superior fabric care.
